Since the two assignments are similar, we will grade them using the same grading arrangement. We can use the rubic in the assignment file for the grading. If the student didn't meet the requirments, we can deduct 20% of that question.